

ABOUT THE STATE

Happenings of Interest from Different Sections.

Nineteen of Burlington's fires in 1918 were caused by children and matches.

Edward Stowe, recently discharged from service, is seriously ill with pneumonia at the home of his mother in East Middlebury.

A small rug on a slippery floor caused Mrs. J. F. Libbey of St. Albans to get a fall that resulted in the breaking of two bones in one wrist.

Lyle, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Rowland of Fairfax, fell through the feed hole in the barn recently, striking on both hands on the floor below. One wrist was broken.

The Vermont Society of Colonial Wars will hold its 25th general court in Burlington, Feb. 22, which is the 150th anniversary of the first permanent settlement at Fort Dummer.

Ernest Parizo, recently discharged from the army, had one leg badly fractured while he was breaking a colt in Winooski. The colt became frightened at a passing train and threw Mr. Parizo out. One leg became caught in a wheel and in this way he was dragged some distance.

Ned Sparks of Leicester was arrested last week on the charge of cruelty to animals, the specific act which caused his arrest being the using of the whip freely on a young colt. He was fined $5 and costs of $10.14, which he paid.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boyce of Elmore observed their 57th wedding anniversary Feb. 10 at their home, where they have lived for 44 years. Mr. Boyce was a soldier in the Civil war in the 11th regiment, Co. I, Vermont volunteers.

Further south and west in the state Friday's snow turned to rain and sleighing. In Brattleboro the streets have been so dusty that persons have been annoyed by the flying dust when automobiles passed.

Bernie Tomlinson, while driving out of a Morrisville dooryard a few days ago, turned too short a corner and was thrown out. The horse ran and collided with a heavy team driven by Silas Perry, one shaft of the sleigh entering the side of one of the Perry horses so that it died that night.

The duties of transport chaplain have proven so arduous that President Thomas of Middlebury college, who reached Middlebury recently, has been confined to his bed for a few days. There were 10,000 men on the Lehigh, the transport with which President Thomas was connected, on the voyage to the United States.

Mrs. Margaret Larin of Bennington has just received word from the war department of the death of her son, George, in France Oct. 9. Mrs. Larin received word early in December that her son had been wounded and that was the last she had heard regarding him until the message last week from the adjutant general. Four of her sons fought in France. One returned early in the war minus a lower jaw, one was shot through the shoulder and has spent considerable time in hospitals for treatment and the nature of the wounds of the one now reported dead she has never learned.

Rutland Woman Sang in 1869 Jubilee. The coming anniversary observation of the peace jubilee in Boston in 1869 recalls the fact that Mrs. Henry A. Harman of Rutland sang in both the 1869 and 1872 jubilees.

Mrs. Harman, who was Jean F. Woodward, was born in Lowell, Mass., and lived there until her marriage and removal to Rutland in 1866. While she was a student in the high school, P. S. Gilmore organized a large chorus for his famous peace jubilee held in Boston during the week of June 15 to 19, 1869. The chorus singers were from Boston and cities and towns within a radius of 50 miles or more. More than 100 in Lowell joined the class and rehearsed the music. Carl Zerrahn had charge of the chorus. Miss Woodward was one of those qualified for the jubilee. She sang in all the concerts and also in the second jubilee in June, 1872. Later Miss Woodward sang in the quartet of the Lowell Unitarian church for 16 years. She sang also in Boston, besides taking part as contralto in musical festivals under the leadership of Carl Zerrahn. She was also contralto in concert given by William Shorwood and Eugene Thayer.

Her musical education was obtained under well known teachers in Boston. Mrs. Harman has taken part in a number of musical events in Rutland in recent years.

BARN-GARAGE DESTROYED. Nelson R. Jones of Burlington had $2,000 loss.

Burlington, Feb. 17.—A fire, the loss from which is estimated to be about $2,000, broke out at 10 o'clock Saturday morning at the home of Nelson R. Jones, located at 264 Shelburne road. The origin of the fire is a mystery. The fire broke out in the rear end of the house which is used as a garage, and it is thought that through some unknown cause a barrel of tar, which was in the garage at the time, became ignited and started the fire.

A five-passenger automobile, which Mr. Jones stated was in good condition, was completely destroyed. At first it was thought that there was gasoline in the tank and that it would explode, but Mr. Jones stated that he had taken all gasoline from the tank several days ago when he cleaned the car. It was valued at about $700.

A big 200-pound pig lost its life in the flames also. About $600 worth of glass for a hothouse was completely destroyed. Other valuable articles lost are a saw, a gasoline engine, two wagons, a sleigh and one buggy. There were also other articles of value lost.

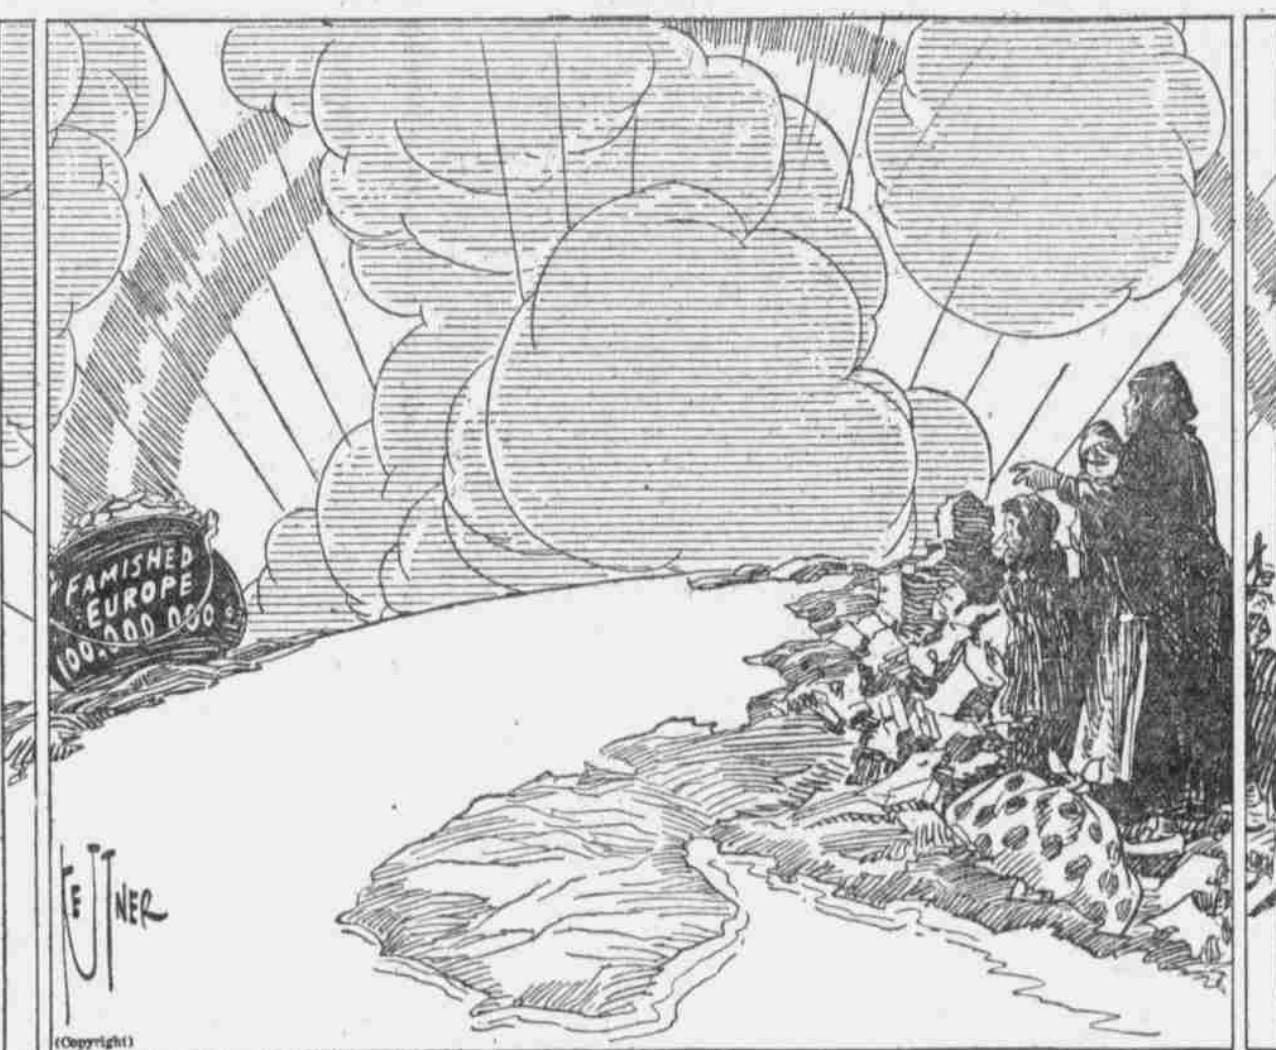

NEW CORPORATION.

Green Mountain Violin Corporation of Morrisville Files Papers.

An affidavit of proposed issue of capital stock has been filed in the office of the secretary of state by the Green Mountain Violin Corporation of Morrisville, which proposes to issue 300 shares of capital stock at $100 each. Frank M. Ashley, F. E. Smith and J. M. Rutter, a majority of the directors, subscribe to the affidavit.

An amendment to the articles of association of the Caledonia County Fair Bureau Exchange, Inc., of St. Johnsbury, proposing to increase the capital stock of this corporation from $5,000 to $10,000, has been filed at the office of the secretary of state. It is signed by A. F. Stoddard and E. H. Hallett, the president and clerk, respectively.

The Pot of Gold

FUR SALE BROUGHT $100,000.

This Was Less Than Anticipated, as Prices Have Lowered Recently.

Burlington, Feb. 17.—A little less than $100,000 was realized last Friday at the plant of the Burlington Rendering Company when buyers from New York took practically the entire stock of furs. They outbid the Boston buyers. In all about 30,000 pieces will be shipped to New York, just as soon as a special express car can be obtained.

The best grade of skunk skins sold at $6 each and mink from $5 to $10. The price of fox skins ranged between $8 and $10. The company had some wild cat skins on hand and these brought from $2 to $6 each.

Seventy other skins sold at prices ranging from $13 to $20. The same was true of marten skins. Bear skins sold between $10 and $15. The skins of weasels sold as high as $1.75. The best muskrat skins went for $18 each. There has been a general depreciation in the fur market the last few weeks and the price at which the skins were sold was considerably less than anticipated.

WOOD'S ISLAND SOLD.

Considerable Property, Owned by Montpelier Man, Disposed of at Auction.

St. Albans, Feb. 17.—Wood's Island, situated in the Great Back Bay of Lake Champlain and owned for 16 years by S. S. Ballard of Montpelier, was sold at public auction Friday to Hector Gaboury of New York City. Mr. Gaboury took possession at once. The price paid was $6,000 and the sale includes 120 acres of land, farm buildings, four cottages, three power and two rowboats, furnishings and personal property, and the crops in the barn.

Mr. Ballard purchased the island in 1903 from his grandfather, Smith A. Brooks of St. Albans, who had owned it since 1849. Mr. Ballard sells because the property is too far from most of his business and other interests.

Mr. Gaboury is the owner of a garage in New York. He will secure a caretaker and make his home on the island during the summer.

Orders taken for any matchings desired. Dolls repaired, crockery and china safely packed.
